

Check out our "useful links" page. And here is more!!

Pronunciation practice

- Tongue Twisters to help your pronunciation. (Courtesy of our Worcester school!)

Reading practice

- read the newsletter from the charity we donate to, Excellent Development

Build up your Vocabulary

- Common phrases in English that you might not find in course books, courtesy of a Bristol partner school
- Idioms from our Washington DC partner school. See pictures and check out the school's Facebook page for a weekly idiom

Idiom of the week: Keep your chin up!

Meaning: It means to stay strong and be confident that things will improve.

Dialogue:

Liz: What's wrong? You seem preoccupied.

Harry: I haven't been able to find a new job yet.

Liz: You've just started looking, and you know how talented you are! Keep your chin up.

Harry: Thanks for the pep talk. Now, where is my resume? I have a few more to send out!

Idiom of the week:
Work Wonders

Meaning: to have a positive effect. Usually associated with something difficult.

Dialogue:
Betty: How's it going, Harry?
Harry: I feel worn down. It's probably because I was up studying late last night.
Betty: Why don't you go home and go to sleep early tonight. That will work wonders on your energy levels.
Harry: Thanks, that's a great idea!

Condividi