

ESSEX MARKET, LOWER EAST SIDE

Located on Manhattan's Lower East Side, Essex Market is the perfect classroom in the city, rain or shine, and we use it year round. This famous old public market has undergone an extensive refurbishment in recent years, and now offers an amazing upstairs space, which is surprisingly quiet in the morning for our classes.

And of course, there are no end of great food options just waiting to be explored downstairs! Once the classes are done, this is also a great spot to explore nearby Chinatown, Nolita and Soho.

English Outdoors
